

Acceptable Use Policy (AUP)

Last Updated: 27/04/2026

This Acceptable Use Policy (“AUP”) outlines the rules for using Plutana and all related services. By using the Service, you agree to comply with this AUP.

1. Prohibited Activities

You may not use the Service to:

- engage in illegal, harmful, or abusive behaviour
- attempt to bypass rate-limits, blacklisting, or security systems
- store personal, sensitive, or confidential information in Roblox datastore entries
- upload or transmit malware, exploits, or harmful code
- impersonate Plutana staff or misrepresent your identity
- interfere with the operation of the Service
- scrape, overload, or attack our APIs
- use the Service for fraud, scams, or deceptive practices

2. Roblox-Specific Restrictions

When using Plutana with a Roblox Experience, you must not:

- store personal data (emails, passwords, IPs, addresses, etc.)
- attempt to circumvent Experience blacklisting
- use Plutana to track players beyond Roblox’s allowed scope
- violate Roblox Terms of Use or Community Standards

3. Discord-Specific Restrictions

When using Plutana Discord bots, you must not:

- use automated systems to spam or overload the bot
- attempt to extract or intercept message content
- use moderation tools for harassment or targeted abuse
- bypass Discord’s own rules or enforcement

4. Security Requirements

You must:

- protect your API keys, tokens, and credentials
- ensure your Roblox or Discord integrations are secure

Acceptable Use Policy (AUP)

- report vulnerabilities or misuse promptly
- avoid sharing access to administrative tools

5. Enforcement

We may take any of the following actions for violations:

- warnings
- temporary suspension
- permanent termination
- blacklisting of Roblox Experiences
- revocation of API access
- reporting violations to Roblox, Discord, or legal authorities

6. Changes to This AUP

We may update this AUP at any time. Updates will be communicated through our website or Discord server.
